Filmit 2025 --A Student Film Competition

From Print to Screen

Aims / Objectives

This is to invite primary and secondary schools to participate in the Filmit 2025 Competition organised by the Native-speaking English Teacher (NET) Section of the Education Bureau.

Details

2. The Filmit 2025 Competition aims to engage primary and secondary students of all ability levels to:

- provide students with an opportunity to collaborate with their peers and use English creatively;
- promote the use of English language to discuss topics relevant to students' lives; and
- cultivate in students positive values and attitudes, in particular, to celebrate the joy, creativity and inspiration brought to filmmaking through reading.

3. Interested schools should submit their entries via the online submission form by 28 March 2025 (Friday). Please access the online form via the link at <https://forms.glc/BoGwxnFZP2X3t9VF8> or scan the QR code below.

For the full details of the competition (e.g. conditions and regulations, awards), please visit the competition webpage at <https://nets.edb.hkedcity.net/page.php?p=316> or scan the QR code below.

4. The FilmLab is currently open for enrolment. If you are considering entering your students into Filmit 2025 and having a go at filmmaking with your students under the guidance of students who are experienced in film production, please sign up for our FilmLab co-organised with Commercial Production Group (CPG), Chinese International School (CIS). To learn more about what happens in a FilmLab, please check out our highlight video of last year's event via the QR code below.

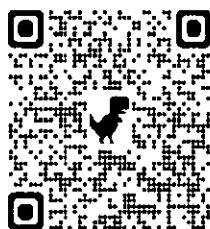

Interested schools should complete the enrolment form (accessible via competition webpage or the QR code below) to express interest. Schools can apply for ONE of the sessions comprising identical content on filmmaking. Enrolment will be closed when all places are filled. An acceptance email will be sent to schools which have successfully enrolled for confirmation.
