  - Faculty of Education, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
  - School Partnership and Field Experience Office, The Education University of Hong Kong
  - Faculty of Education, The University of Hong Kong
- (In no particular order)

Theme

Good People, Good Deeds

Objectives

1. To provide students with the opportunity to pay tribute to those who live up to the ideals of our community and put into practice universal moral values including dignity, kindness, respect, impartiality and the spirit of humanity ; and
2. To promote students' interest in writing and the use of the English language.

The Competition provides young writers with a platform to explore the world of writing, to stretch their imagination; and most importantly, to infuse positive energy into society, thus fostering social cohesion and promoting care, mutual help and solidarity in the local community. Students may write how a person can make a difference simply by showing love, appreciation, compassion and kindness to people around them.

Levels of Entry

The Competition is divided into three levels:

- A. Junior (Primary 4 – Primary 6)
- B. Middle (Secondary 1 – Secondary 3)
- C. Senior (Secondary 4 – Secondary 6)

Each school may submit the best 10 entries per level, for which certificates of participation will be awarded to the participants when the programme is completed. All entries must be submitted by school. Entry submitted by individual party will not be considered.
